

WAS THERE A WRECK?

Five Men Said to Have Been Killed on the Lehigh Road.

Train Manned by Non-Union Men Becomes Unmanageable.

Reports of Mob Violence at Wilkes-Barre and Other Points.

At this end of the line this morning the strikers on the Lehigh Valley road have much the better of it. The officials, of course, put the best foot forward when asked for a statement of the condition of things, but it is uphill work in the face of existing circumstances.

It was reported among the few strikers who live in Jersey City that the Lehigh had given up its attempts to send out west-bound freight and that no trains would move from the Communipaw yards to-day.

This was in the main substantiated by Freight Agent Rundo and Yard Master said this morning. Both admitted that no loaded cars would be moved to-day, and that no trains would move from the Communipaw yards to-day.

According to some of the train hands, who came into Jersey City from Wilkes-Barre during the forenoon, the company will have some trouble finding any freight to pick up. They say the roads' right business is still paralyzed and that shippers are not trying to get their goods to the company without some guarantee that they will arrive at their destination.

It was learned this morning that the Lehigh had no telegraphic communication with points the other side of Easton. This came out when particulars were asked for at Agent Rundo's office, concerning the report that nine men had been killed in a collision on the Lehigh near White Haven. It was then said that the wires were not working, and that no information had been received about the accident.

This was encouraging news for the strikers, who, when told about it, expressed themselves as satisfied with the several committees that have been working quietly for several days to induce the operators to leave their keys.

To even things up a little, Yardmaster announced this forenoon that six of the union switchmen who went out from the Communipaw yard on Wednesday had returned to work. If these men have really gone back, all efforts to find them proved abortive when interviews with them were wanted.

The strikers and employees of the Central Railroad of New Jersey are anxiously awaiting the result of the conference to be held this afternoon at the Higham House, in Philadelphia, between President Wilbur and the New York and New Jersey State Boards of Arbitration.

The men express themselves as confident that when their grievances are understood by President Wilbur he will consent to have the dispute submitted to arbitration.

There was some talk among the employees at the Communipaw station to-day to the effect that Special Officer Bryant's story about having been beaten by strikers Saturday night, is "fishy."

Some go so far as to say that he fell down and hurt himself on the tracks, and that he made up a story of the result. It is the Jersey City Herald, which arrived in Jersey City at 11

VIOLENCE AT WILKESBARRE.

The Governor May Have to Call Out State Troops.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 27.—Violence is reported all along the line of the Lehigh Valley road, between Scranton and Sugar Notch, has notified Sheriff Walters that he is not in a position to preserve the public peace. The Sheriff will send deputies to that town to-day.

The station was captured by a mob yesterday and the operator killed. At Warrior Run two freight brakemen were stoned, the freight cars between this city and White did not leave their offices last evening. They had received threatening letters. The train service is badly crippled.

Coal Creek, Pa. The Ninth Regiment National Guards, says he has received no word from Harrisburg as yet. He has been ordered to move his headquarters to the Lehigh Valley road, where the various companies cannot protect the company's property and is generally admitted that the Governor will have to call out the State troops.

At Piqua a non-union workman was struck on the head with a stone and knocked from the train. The train was stopped for some time. The strikers are quarantined in the garret of the passenger depot of this city last night. Six armed men were seen to enter the depot. The strikers are quarantined in the garret of the passenger depot of this city last night. Six armed men were seen to enter the depot.

Just as a Delaware Lackawanna and Western train was approaching the crossing, a Lehigh Valley coal-train came thundering down the track at the rate of twenty miles an hour. The danger bell at the crossing was down, but the engineer dashed past the crossing only twenty feet ahead of the passenger train.

A north-bound passenger train was coming up the track, and only the prompt action of the junction operator, saved a collision. He hurriedly sent a message to Easton, and the coal-train was run off on a siding, a very short time before the passenger train went past the accident.

Freeman Badly Scalded. BATAVIA, Nov. 27.—The crew-south of Lehigh engine No. 490, drawing an east-bound freight train, burned out near here tonight. Freeman O'Rourke, of Buffalo, was badly scalded, and will probably die.

JOHN KRAU CHS MISSING. He Disappeared from Jersey City Last Friday While Ill. John Krausch, of 180 Warren street, Jersey City, disappeared from his home on Friday and has not been heard from since. He was a fireman employed by the American Sugar Refining Company.

On Friday he complained of pains in the head and stomach. Dr. Bauman was summoned to attend him, but before the physician arrived Krausch left the house and was last seen going across what is known as the Penny Bridge over the Morris Canal.

Krausch's brother died in Russia a short time ago leaving him 2,000 rubles. The Morris Canal was dragged yesterday. The body of Krausch's brother could be found. He was a single man.

Gaynor Returned from Chicago. William J. Gaynor, Judge-elect of the Supreme Court, has returned to his office in Brooklyn, after spending a week in Chicago.

HAIRE'S ASSAILANT ON TRIAL.

Duffy Is Charged with a Mardorous Assault.

Haire Says a Tammany Pull Has Delayed Justice.

The trial of Salomon-Keeper John Duffy and his friend, Owen Kane, for an alleged murderous assault upon Lawyer Robert J. Haire, on the night of May 11, was begun before Judge Martine, in Part II, of the General Sessions, this morning.

The complaint on Saturday openly charged the District-Attorney's office with delaying the trial and with in collusion with the defendants. Mr. Haire further alleges that his witnesses have been approached and his case against Duffy has been injured from the fact that James L. Lockman, one of the witnesses of the assault, died and was buried last Thursday.

Duffy, according to Mr. Haire, is one of Tammany's useful petty leaders and is a brother-in-law of "Jim" Barker, who, when leader of the Thirtieth District, assaulted a man in a Sixth avenue saloon, and was convicted.

The alleged assault upon Haire grew out of a fight over a mortgage for $150, made to John Duffy by Peter McAvoy, a railroad engineer of 150 Ninth avenue, upon the fixtures in his saloon. Haire was McAvoy's lawyer. He won a case against Duffy before the Lawes Board on May 3.

In his complaint Haire alleges that Duffy approached him and wanted him to sell out his client, and that after he was beaten in the saloon case Duffy threatened to "do him up."

On the night of May 11, Haire charges, he was attacked by Duffy and Kane at 250 West 125th street and Edgewood avenue, and was badly beaten that he had to be removed to the hospital. Haire was suffering chiefly from a fracture at the base of the skull. The surgeons removed the head of the humerus, together with a small fragment of the right arm, which is said to be disabled for life.

Lawyers Friend & Howe appear for Duffy and Assistant District-Attorney Weeks will conduct the prosecution.

AGAIN THE STILETTO. Pasquale Giudice Held for Stabbing John Vincetto. Pasquale Giudice, of 225 East One Hundred and Fifteenth street, was a prisoner in the Harlem Police Court this morning.

Giudice and a fellow-countryman, named John Vincetto, of 42 East One Hundred and Twelfth street, had a quarrel last night, and the latter was stabbed in the back. The wound is not serious.

Giudice was captured by Patrolman Tynan, of the East One Hundred and Fourth street station. Justice Feltner held Giudice in $200 bail for trial.

NEVER TOO LATE TO MEND. Louis Moller and Maria Fack Wed After Living Together 22 Years. After having lived together for twenty-two years, Louis Moller, sixty-three, and a widow, and Maria Fack, fifty-one, and hitherto single, decided to-day to get married.

The couple live at 43 East Ninth street. Moller is bent with age, and has a long, gray beard. Alderman "Sol" Flynn married them in room 13, City Hall.

MRS. HENDERSON'S DOOR STANDS

The Sheriff Is Not Ready to Break It In Yet.

Mrs. Russell Henderson has again come out ahead of the deputy sheriffs and was not compelled to forsake the aristocratic surroundings of the Hotel St. Mark to appear in the City Court Chambers to-day, as Lawyer Julius Lehmman attorney for her judgment creditor, insisted she should.

As published in the "Evening World" last Saturday, Lawyer Lehmman formally tried to Sheriff that he would hold him responsible for the production of Mrs. Henderson in the City Court Chambers to-day, for her judgment creditor, insisted she should.

Lawyer Lehmman has submitted to the sheriff a letter, advising him to the effect that he has a right to break Mrs. Henderson's door if necessary, and that he will stand by him in the act.

It was during this altercation that Fitzgerald saw Mrs. Ryan interfere, and that he would expect they are preparing to do.

Mayor Gilroy said to-day that he would ask the Corporation Counsel for an opinion as to whether the Manhattan Elevated Railroad Company had a right to lay a third track on the Ninth avenue line, as it would expect they are preparing to do.

MRS. COOK ASKS FOR ALIMONY. A Leading Eccentric Comedian Sued for Divorce. Lawyer A. H. Hummel, counsel for Annie Cook, an English actress, filed a motion before Judge Freeman, of the Superior Court, this morning asking for a divorce against her husband, Augustus Cook.

Cook is the leading eccentric comedian of Daniel Freeman's company. Lawyer Hummel submitted the papers without argument. The defendant opposed his wife's motion on the ground that before becoming his wife she was married in 1881 to Charles Robinson in Liverpool.

Cook alleges that he is now supporting in a convent, one of the three children born of this marriage. He also declares that he has been informed by George Wilson, an actor now in Liverpool, that Robinson is still living. Decision was reserved.

In her complaint Mrs. Cook named Evelyn Lullia Hall, the nineteen-year-old daughter of a wealthy manufacturer of this city, as co-defendant.

Miss Hall was Cook's girl at a school for actors. In support of her charges Mrs. Cook files with her complaint several of Mrs. Hall's letters to the defendant, which are filled with endearing terms.

TO BRAZIL UNDER U. S. FLAG.

Mendonca's Plan to Get the Destroyer Safely to Rio Janeiro.

Once Inside the Harbor She May Attack the Aquidaban. It was announced this morning that the Brazilian submarine gun vessel destroyer, which is expected to leave for Southern waters the latter part of this week, had registered as an American vessel belonging to the Brazilian heirs. Her gross tonnage was given as 125 and net tonnage as 61.

This fact, in addition to the statement of a member of the firm of Flint & Co., that the destroyer will probably fly the American flag until she reaches Brazil, is taken to indicate that the submarine gun vessel will have Uncle Sam's protection until safely landed in a Brazilian port.

The plan of the firm of Flint & Co., that the destroyer will probably fly the American flag until she reaches Brazil, is taken to indicate that the submarine gun vessel will have Uncle Sam's protection until safely landed in a Brazilian port.

Provided the plan is carried out naval men expect a revelation in warfare at sea. An officer said this morning that the destroyer will probably move as quietly as did the monitor at Hampton Roads, and that she may be just as much a surprise to the formidable Aquidaban as was the torpedo boat in the Merrimack.

Mechanics this morning were busy on the destroyer at Erie Basin, craning a bed for a gun to be placed on the forward deck.

The present plans of Flint & Co. are to send the Yarrow torpedo-boat to Brazil aboard the tug that takes the destroyer. It is expected that the torpedo-boat, which is now at the Morgan Iron Works, will be finished to-morrow.

IT WAS AN ITALIAN FEUD.

Cardenelli's Three Victims Badly Cut and One May Die.

Louis Cardenelli lies at St. Vincent's Hospital with a stab wound under the heart and one in the stomach. Last night a Coroner took Louis's ante-mortem statement, and the doctors say his recovery is doubtful.

Louis's uncle, Sarafino, is also at St. Vincent's Hospital. He has two stab wounds in the leg and one on the hip. Mary Cardenelli, the wife of Louis, was severely cut in the head.

Joseph Cardenelli, who is believed to have cut the other three, was a prisoner at J.erson Market Court to-day. He also had his head wrapped in a bandage. He had been cut twice.

Justice Hogan held Cardenelli to await the result of his enemy's injuries.

PICKPOCKET AT TWELVE. Mary Fitzsimmons Sent to the Catholic Penitentiary Till of Age. Mary Fitzsimmons, twelve years old, of 47 West Fifty-fourth street, who a year ago was caught picking pockets in the Cathedral, is once more under arrest, charged with having picked the pockets of several women in Central Park yesterday.

Collective Savage, of the park police, in arresting a girl pickpocket before Justice Hogan, at the Yorkville Court, to-day, said that he had found her acting suspiciously about the hour of yesterday afternoon.

After watching her a few minutes he saw her "stap" the pockets of a number of women and placed her under arrest. In her pockets were found two pocket-books and a small amount of change.

Justice Hogan committed Mary to the care of the Girls Society until Wednesday, when she will be committed to the Catholic Penitentiary until she is of age.

She Was Blind. With scrofula in the eyes, could barely distinguish between daylight and darkness. It was in numerous excursions and hospitals and gave up in despair. A friend advised us to give Hood's Sarsaparilla.

and, marvellously to relate, it has completely restored her sight and given her perfect health." CHAS. A. ADAMS, ST. ALBANS, VT.
